03/30/2011	26	RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR RELIEF FROM LOCAL RULE 6.3: The odds that I will change my mind and transfer this action to California are remote. A variety of factors caused me to conclude that the litigation should go forward here—at least through motions to dismiss, which I of Course anticipate will be forthcoming. I cannot imagine that the "short reply brief" that KPMG asked to submit (which I said was unnecessary), would have changed my mind. If KPMG moves for reconsideration, it can submit a short statement of no more than three pages summarizing any developments in the California litigation of which the Court might not be aware (no more should be necessary, since the case docket sheet is publicly available). That is the variation from Local Rule 6.3 that I will permit. I will not permit any extension of the deadline for making any such motion. And plaintiffs need not file any response unless I direct otherwise (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 3/30/2011) Copies by ECF to all Counsel(js) (Entered: 03/30/2011)

04/08/2011	40	ORDER DENYING MOTION LEAVE TO INTERVENE AS PREMATURE AND WITHOUT PREJUDICE: In short, at this moment it is far from apparent that this action will impede or impair the ability of the California plaintiffs to recover on their claims in a California court. I can see no reason to introduce new players (read, a new set of lawyers) in this court – especially for all purposes, as the movants wish – until after we figure out what the scope of this action is going to be. Once we have sorted out the class issues, if there is any overlap between this action and the California action, plaintiffs may of course renew their motion for leave to intervene; nothing in this order precludes them from doing so. I imagine that KPMG will be writing to me shortly suggesting that this motion affords yet another basis for me to transfer this case to California (I denied a motion for reconsideration of that issue just yesterday). I might hope that this order would obviate the need for any such letter, but that would be wishful thinking indeed.. (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 4/8/2011) (jpo) (Entered: 04/08/2011)

06/29/2011	82	ORDER SETTING HEARING: Defendant has unilaterally filed certain papers opposing plaintiffs' motion for conditional class certification under seal, claiming that they contain sensitive confidential and proprietary information about KPMG's business, including certain "unique and proprietary" audit policies, practices and procedures. The publicly-filed version of KPMG's brief in opposition to the motion and its supporting papers are heavily redacted. Plaintiff insists that KPMG has redacted information that cannot be considered "confidential" under any reasonable definition. By this order, I am directing the parties to recommend to the court independent experts in accounting who are not and never have been affiliated with or served as a consultant for KPMG or any affiliated or predecessor firm. From among their recommendations, I will appoint a court expert, who will review the allegedly proprietary practices and advise the court about whether they ought in fact to be subject to a confidentiality order. KPMG will bear the expense of the expert. I also intend to ask the AICPA and the SEC to weigh in on this issue if they are of a mind to do so. I have no wish to delay consideration of the conditional certification motion while we are organizing this hearing, so I am instructing plaintiff's counsel to file reply papers under seal. 06/04/2012	257	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Colleen McMahon from Colleen M. Kenney dated 6/4/2012 re: We represent the Defendant KPMG LLP ("KPMG") in the above-entitled action. We write to respectfully request that the Court deny Plaintiffs' request for a second extension of the deadline to file their motion for summary judgment. The parties knew of the schedule and circumstances of which Plaintiffs now complain when the Court granted the prior extension request and ordered that there be "no further extensions" (ECF No. 228). ENDORSEMENT: No extensions received. The end. (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 6/4/2012) (lmb) (Entered: 06/04/2012)
06/05/2012	258	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Colleen McMahon from Justin M. Swartz dated 5/31/12 re: Counsel for the plaintiffs writes in response to the two times that defendants have accused them of not telling the truth in their letters today. Counsel also states that on June 1 they wrote to request a one week extension of time to move for summary judgment; counsel has also requested a ten page extension of the 25 page limit for summary judgment. ENDORSEMENT: My ruling does not rest on the "in fighting" or "truth telling." It rests on the fact that I said no more extensions a month ago and I meant it. This motion is supposed to test whether there is a simple way to deal with what will otherwise be a complex lawsuit. I want it done simply. (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 6/5/2012) (mro) Modified on 6/6/2012 (mro). (Entered: 06/05/2012)
